The Great Destroyer

Introduction
The Great Destroyer

The Great Destroyer

I don't carry this title

because I like it.

I don't even want the damn thing.

But I continue to hold it in me, a fire in my chest.

It's my reason to keep going.

My reason to exist.

Not everything is under control. Rampant emotions-they take horrific and grotesque forms.

These... things... consume people, places-and spread to other worlds.

Rinse and repeat.

And soon, they'll focus on us

-inside you all-the very things those "shadows" spawn and create.

And when the truly far-gone

worlds turn to ashes and dust,

know this:

I didn't want to do it.

But it was for every One's sake.

I bring about oblivion,

to safeguard all that must exist.

I am the Great Destroyer.
